SEATTLE WASHINGTON

Marathon !!!

October 7th will mark yet another attempt to finance independent alternative public radio. What that means, of course, is THE FALL MARATHON. KRAB will ask the listeners to phone in a pledge of support(money!). A subscription to KRAB will entitle you to the program guide in the mail every month..... "Oh yeah?" said an angry subscriber "I put up my money last April and only got one guide...and it was late!" KRAB must admit there has been a mix up of some sort in the subscriber mailings. For this KRAB would like to apologize. Evidence of our good faith should be the October guide you received in the mail. And those BankAmerikrabs are on the way. So if you can stay with us and understand that we've been a little busy lately(are you there Marge?) we would be most thankful. Remember to tell your friends and everyone else that KRAB can be a very important part of their life. Support alternative radio.....324-3660

Speakers: Professors Douglas North, Bruce Cumings, Donald Hellman, and Michael Doyle

Oct. 11 AMERICAN VALUES AND U.S. FOREIGN POLICY: HOW DO WE APPROACH THE WORLD?

The Tuesday forums will be at 8 P.M. at the Capitol Hill United Methodist Church, 16th E. and E. John, near Group Health Hospital. All KRAB listeners and other interested people are invited to attend and participate in the discussions. Child care will be provided.

For KRAB radio shows, here's the format. Every Monday at 7:30 P.M., right after the International News, we will broadcast a half-hour program giving background information on the Tuesday night forum. Then on Thursday night at 9:30, and again on Friday afternoon at 3 P.M., we'll broadcast a one-hour tape of the Tuesday-night forum. For details, see the program guide for appropriate dates and times.

If you want more information on the series or specific programs, write or call me at the station, 325-5110 or 1406 Harvard, Seattle 98122. This series is funded in part by a grant from the Washington State Commission for the Humanities.
